With the news loaded with negative messages and restrictions changing almost daily, it's not surprising that we are getting rather tired and frustrated with the uncertainties we face. One thing is sure, for those who are able to travel, there is a real sense of freedom when you get out of the metro areas into this beautiful country. Relax in the beauty of nature, rain on the caravan roof, stunning sunsets and a friendly, social interaction around the campfire. Keeping distant at all times, there is a sense of relief getting away from the craziness that is Covid!

Stay safe, keep the hands clean and keep your distance. Even out there, these habits are a must!

On the 11th July Kui Parks celebrated it's 6th Birthday! Thank you to all our 26,000 friends, followers and members as well as our great parks that welcome our members. New to Kui Parks

In spite of the challenges we face with Covid19, we have not stopped looking for new parks for our members and guests. I am very pleased to welcome the 2 newest parks to the Kui network. I know it may be a challenge to reach them in these days, however we thank you for keeping them in mind in your future travels.

A special welcome to Gary & Diane Wood, who manage the community park in Charlton Victoria, the Travellers Rest Caravan Park. This park straddles the Avoca River providing excellent sites, from self contained, unpowered, powered to beautiful ensuite sites. This park is the perfect stop between Melbourne and Mildura. Be sure this is not a one nighter as its worth a much longer stay to explore the town and the region and relax in the beautiful surroundings.

Welcome to Len & Kathy Sweet from the Kerang Caravan & Tourist Park, Victoria. A park that has undergone a heap of recent improvements to make your stay so much better, offering a central location close to town yet with stunning sites on the banks of the Loddon River. A perfect location to enjoy some time in this beautiful park and to explore the town and region. Park up and relax!
